

LESSON 21
FINAL INSTRUCTIONS
HEBREWS 13:1-8

I. Instructions (13:1-6)

A. Concerning social life (13:1-3)

1. Love for others (13:1)

- The writer commands his readers to _____.
- Brotherly love expresses _____.

2. Hospitality (13:2)

- The writer stresses that we are not to forget to _____.
- He provides his readers with _____.
- He reminds his readers that some have _____.

Scripture Genesis 18:1-8

3. Prisoners (13:3)

- The writer tells his readers to remember the prisoners as if they _____.
- They were also to remember those who are mistreated as if they _____.
- The writer is calling his readers to _____.

B. Concerning your private life (13:4-6)

1. Marriage (13:4a)

- The writer commends marriage as something that his readers should _____.
- The word "bed" refers to _____.
- The readers are commanded not to _____.

2. Sexual sin (13:4b)

- The writer reminds his readers that _____.
- The phrase "will judge" means that _____.

3. Conduct and contentment (13:5a)

- The writer calls us to conduct ourselves without being _____.

- We are not to be motivated by _____.

Scripture 1 Timothy 6:10

- We are called to be content with _____.

4. Confidence (13:5b-6)

- The writer reflects on _____ in Joshua 1:5.

- The Lord promises that he will _____.

- Because of God's promise, we can have _____.

- We do not need to _____.

II. Examples to Follow (13:7-8)

A. Church leaders (13:7)

- The readers are called to remember their spiritual leaders who _____.

- We are called to follow _____.

B. Jesus Christ (13:8)

- The writer proclaims _____.