Broken Walls (Nehemiah 1:1-11)
Week of January 28, 2018

Read Nehemiah 1:1-11. Ask the Lord to speak to you through the passage.

Consider the Faith Principles from the passage and pray about them.

Faith Principle #1

You have to be realistic about the broken walls in your life.

Honestly assess the broken walls in your life, your marriage, your family and the Church. Talk to the Lord about your concerns.

Faith Principle #2

You must allow the reality of the broken walls to move you.

Allow the condition of the broken walls in your life to move you to express your true emotions to the Lord.

Faith Principle #3

You have to confess the issues that led to the broken walls.

Talk with the Lord about your broken walls and come clean with him about your involvement. Confess your sins to God.

Faith Principle #4

Look to God's promises as a source of strength not manipulation.

Remind the Lord concerning his promises to you. Do this not as a form of manipulation, but rather as a means of seeking him to act of his promises.

Faith Principle #5

Be specific with God about your broken walls.

Ask the Lord to help you with the broken walls in your life. Be specific when you ask him to do something.
